

3.2. Chazali Situmorang

FUNCTION ANALYSIS OF THE NATIONAL SOCIAL SECURITY COUNCIL IN DEVELOPING THE OMNIBUS LAW SYSTEM AND MANAGEMENT OF NATIONAL SOCIAL SECURITY

Chazali H. Situmorang
FISIP, Universitas Nasional, Jakarta
chazalisitumorang@yahoo.com

ABSTRACT

The implementation of National Social Security by the Health and Employment Social Security Administering Body experiences a gap between the law's orders and the implementation of the National Social Security System Law and the Law on Social Security Administering Bodies. strengthening the function of the National Social Security Council in the draft law (Omnibus Law) of the National Social Security System and Administration, which was analyzed using the theory of function according to Himawan (1980) and the function of the National Social Security Council as referred to in Law Number 40 of 2004 concerning the Security System, National Social Affairs Article 7, and the theory of implementation according to Edwards III (1980). The goal of this study was to determine the role of the National Social Security Council in the preparation of the Draft Law (Omnibus Law) of the National Social Security System and its implementation, as well as the obstacles, problems, and influencing factors in the preparation of the Draft Law (Omnibus Law) System and its implementation. The results of the study stated that the National Social Security Council has succeeded in conducting a study of the Academic Paper on the Draft Law (Omnibus Law) of the National Social Security System and Implementation as an agenda for changes to Law Number 40 of 2004 concerning the Social Security System and Law Number 24 of 2011 concerning the Social Security Administering Body, which are included in the Mid-Term National Legislation Program for 2020-2024 at the proposal of the House of Representatives and the Government. Keywords: functions of the National Social Security Council, system, and implementation of national social security.